

Black Elk is 4-for-4 in Medals at Finger Lakes International Wine Competition!

NEWS RELEASE
March 29, 2013

PHILADELPHIA, PA - March 29, 2013

The 2013 Finger Lakes International Wine Competition (FLIWC) is now complete and the results are in....over 3,500 wines entered - from 20 countries, Black Elk earned four (4) medals....a Gold Medal (Moscato), a Silver Medal (Shiraz) and two Bronze Medals (Chardonnay and Tempranillo)!

The FLIWC, truly an international competition, boasts nearly 100 national and international judges, representing sommeliers, educators, winemakers, importers, retailers and industry consultants from viticulture regions in the United States and overseas.

The Black Elk Wines of the World program is a line of premium varietal wines, from different world growing regions - and all packaged under the same Black Elk brand moniker. These are premium varietal wines, beautifully packaged, and a very user-friendly multi-country wine brand.

www.BlackElkWine.com.

Black Elk varietals currently available are: (i) Shiraz; (ii) Chardonnay; (iii) Tempranillo; and (iv) Moscato (Spain). Additional Black Elk varietal offerings from other countries are anticipated for launch at later dates.